

EdTech Innovation Testbed Privacy Notice for Schools and Colleges

We will use any personal information provided by you or your partners, including contact details for your staff and your partners' staff:

- for the purpose of assessing and evaluating your Application;
- to process your application for Programme;
- to administer the Programme;
- to carry out evaluation and research.

We may share this information with the Department for Education who are working with us to deliver this Programme. We may also share this information with our evaluation partner(s), including the University of Durham, who help us to carry out evaluation during the Programme and we will let you know details about that organisation or those organisations before we do this. Our legal basis for doing this is our legitimate interest of being able to work collaboratively with other organisations to deliver this Programme. You can find the University of Durham's privacy policy here [https://www.dur.ac.uk/ig/dp/privacy/].

We use a third party provider, SurveyGizmo, to provide the application form. SurveyGizmo operates in the U.S. and complies with the EU-U.S Privacy Shield Framework. Please see their privacy policy for further information. If your Application is successful we will share the personal information with the edtech organisation that you are matched with for the purposes of the Programme. You will be provided with further details about this (including the identity of the relevant organisation) before the information is shared with them.

Please see our Privacy Policy for more information about how we use personal information.

Nesta, the Department for Education and our partners may carry out publicity and promotion for the Programme and publish our research and evaluation in relation to the Programme. Unless otherwise agreed by us, you confirm (on behalf of your organisation and your partners) that Nesta may use of your team's organisation names and a summary of your proposal in promotion and publications in any media and online. Before publication, we will take into account your concerns about confidentiality and intellectual property rights in your entry. Nesta may ask you and your team members to support and/or participate in promotional activities related to the Programme on reasonable notice.
